Call for Nomination of National Delegate & Deputy (Group 1, countries A – I)

Dear National Societies,

since the period of office of the current National Delegates/Deputies of the EANM National Member countries (Group 1, A – I) is ending with December 2022, the EANM is calling to nominate the National Delegate/Deputy for the period 01.01.2023 until 31.12.2026.

Nomination Procedure

Please return the nominations by November 28, 2022 to Ms Launa Schoebinger-Hassve at the EANM Executive Office via l.schoebinger-hassve@eanm.org. Please note, that two separate forms are attached for the nomination of the Delegate and the Deputy respectively.

Expectations towards the National Delegate/Deputy

For your reference please find attached a document outlining the EANM's expectations towards its National Delegates/Deputies. It also gives further details that need to be considered for the appointment. Please pass this document also on to the National Delegate/Deputy.

Term of Office

Please kindly note the term of Office of the Delegate/Deputy according to the EANM Statutes: §7.3.2. A Delegate/Deputy can be accepted by the EANM only upon the proven status of the National Society being officially representative for Nuclear Medicine in the respective country. Duration of office is four years, renewable for one further four-year period. National Nuclear Medicine Societies or equivalent as in 5.10 may apply in writing for an exemption of this rule that may be granted by the Board.

§7.3.3. Only Ordinary Members of the Association are eligible as Members of the Delegates' Assembly. The deputy National Delegate will act as a substitute for the National Delegate for the duration of office of the National Delegate.

EANM Delegates' Assembly

Please note that the new National Delegate will also be invited to the EANM Delegates' Assembly in March 2023, in Vienna. Concrete dates and times will be shared soon by the EANM Office and details regarding the Assembly including the format (onsite vs virtual) will be released in due course before the meeting.

Finally, we would like to kindly ask you to inform us at your earliest convenience about any changes regarding the National Delegate/Deputy during the period of office.

Thank you in advance for your efforts.

On behalf of the EANM Board,

Jolanta Kunikowska
EANM President

Wolfgang Wadsak
EANM Secretary/Treasurer
